

Women's History Month Recognition - 2012-13

Recognition will be given for Women's History Month projects, programs and other activities that generate community awareness of the contributions women have made in the community, the state and the nation's history. Local chapters are encouraged to take a comprehensive approach to participation in the celebration of Women's History Month; however, an entry does not need to demonstrate that every possible means (for example, community projects AND media coverage/stories AND government proclamations, etc) have been employed to be considered for an award under this program.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Entry is to be submitted in a securely fastened folder with the name of the Local Chapter and the words "Women's History Month" on the cover. If entry takes the form of a story or display board, information identifying the local organization and the purpose of entry shall be included with the display materials.
2. The first page in the folder shall include the following information:
 - a. Name of the Local Chapter
 - b. Number of chapter members
 - c. Number of members working on the project
